PRESENTATION OF AWARDS

DAISY Faculty Award

This award was created by parents Bonnie and Mark Barnes in gratitude for the extraordinary nurses who cared for their son during his illness and eventual death. It honors nursing faculty who inspire their students to always remember that nursing is much more than tasks and technology and help to ensure that the art as well as the science of nursing are brought to every patient experience.

Letitia Salazar-Monk DNP, CNM, ARNP

Excellence in Clinical Teaching

This award recognizes a faculty member with exceptional effort in and approach to clinical teaching and a high quality of student interactions.

Susan Bayes MN, RN

Excellence in Promoting Diversity through Teaching

This award recognizes a faculty member with subject matter knowledge, a commitment to diversity, respect for all, and the development of a flexible and inclusive teaching style.

Sandra Eyres Excellence in Graduate Teaching

This award recognizes a faculty member with a clear and engaging teaching style, professionalism, and personal contributions to teaching in graduate-level nursing programs.

Michael Grodesky PhD, ARNP

Rheba de Tornay Excellence in Undergraduate Teaching

This award recognizes a faculty member with a clear and engaging teaching style, professionalism, and personal contributions to teaching in undergraduate-level nursing programs.

Letitia Salazar-Monk

Undergraduate Nursing Achievement Award

This award recognizes an undergraduate student who has demonstrated a contribution to their community, leadership, and exceptional care for others in the context of their academic program.

Daniella Zlatarev

Doctor of Nursing Practice Outstanding Student Award

This award recognizes a DNP student who has demonstrated leadership, clinical competency, and outstanding academic contributions to the nursing profession in the context of their academic program.

Cecilia Christine Gilmore

Master of Science Outstanding Student Award

This award recognizes a MS student who has demonstrated the application of theory to practice, creativity, scholarship, professional potential, leadership, and contributions to the community in the context of their academic program.

Alison Raine

Outstanding Teaching Assistant Award

This award recognizes a graduate student Teaching Assistant who has demonstrated outstanding contributions to the teaching efforts of the School.

Nhia Yerkes-Vang

Dissertation Award in Nursing Science

This award recognizes a PhD student whose dissertation has demonstrated a significant research contribution, creativity, and scientific significance.

Karl Cristie F. Figuracion

DAISY in-training

In line with the DAISY Faculty Award, this award recognizes a nursing student whose direct care with patients and their families demonstrates outstanding compassionate care — and that nursing is much more than tasks and technology, but an art and a science to bring into every patient experience.

CONGRATULATIONS CLASS OF 2023!

CONGRATULATIONS AND WELCOME TO THE UW SCHOOL OF NURSING HUSKYNURSE
ALUMNI COMMUNITY.

Being a HuskyNurse represents a connection to others, both near and far. It's a hunger that pushes us to tackle challenges and pursue progress. It's the conviction that together we can create a world of good. And it's our determination to Be Boundless.

Thank you for sharing our belief in possibility and our unshakable optimism. You allow us to be responsive to society's changing healthcare needs so that everyone may live the fullest life possible.
